STAT

Your friend "Pete White" has followed up as promised (see attached). He runs the Potomac Chapter of the National Military Intelligence Association.

They would like you to speak to their monthly luncheon meeting -- this group consists of active duty as well as retired folk from all the services. (Would be approx. 60 people.)

They have cocktails at 1130; lunch at 1200; remarks at 1230 (20 minutes) followed by Qs & As.

They hope you would come in January; it's held at the BAFB.

PS: I talked with Mr. White -- told him you could not speak in October -- said he'd call again in December and see if you could speak at the January gathering.

Do "we" know this person and want to do this??
I was friendly but made no promises.
